Zero RE100 Concerns

Paju, a City with Public Renewable Energy Direct PPAs

RE100 is a global initiative for companies to source 100% of their electricity from renewable energy, such as solar and wind power, by 2050. More than 400 global companies have joined the initiative, including major companies such as Google, Apple, SK, and Samsung. As renewable energy requirements expand across global supply chains, RE100 has become an important factor in export competitiveness.

Paju is Korea's first city to directly supply public renewable energy, helping businesses ease the burden of meeting RE100 requirements.

A Livable Healing City

With GTX-A bringing Seoul even closer, Paju offers a pleasant new-town residential environment, safe school routes, large parks, and closely located elementary, middle, and high schools. The planned medical cluster will further expand its large-scale healthcare infrastructure, including a university hospital and a National Cancer Center.

A clean cultural city where rich history, nature, and artistic sensibility come together

A Clean Cultural City PAJU

PAJU, a Healing City

A city that brings rest and wellness into everyday life with green healing spaces throughout urban areas

PAJU, an Education and Care City

A city that brings rest and wellness into everyday life with green healing spaces throughout urban areas

PAJU, a Culture and Leisure City

A city where the Heyri Art Village and the Paju Book City cultural cluster coexist with commercial infrastructure such as Starfield and premium outlets, along with cultural festivals in every season

PAJU, a Sports-for-All City

A city where everyone can enjoy sports close to home, with public sports facilities evenly distributed across local communities, including Paju Stadium and multi-purpose gymnasiums.

Invest, PAJU

Promising Industries for Investment

Display

A triangular industrial belt centered on LG Display, linking the LCD, Wollong, Dangdong, and Seonyu industrial complexes

A foundation of Korea's advanced display industry and a future hub for high-tech convergence and knowledge-based industries.

• • Future Bio Industry Hub

Bio Medical

The Paju Medical Cluster, bringing together a university hospital, the National Cancer Center Future Innovation Center, and medical and bio companies, will serve as Paju's core medical and bio hub.

Media Contents

Center of the K-Content Industry

With dedicated sites for the content industry, including Book City, Contents World, and Studio City, and leading companies such as CJ ENM and SM located in the city, Paju is a center of the K-content industry.
